

Performance-Lock Rubber Tiles

Performance-Lock Rubber Tiles offer the unsurpassed durability and performance of a 1/2" thick rubber gym flooring product with the look of a designer color tile. These interlocking rubber tiles have an attractive, slip-resistant wear layer on top and are cushioned with a shock-absorbing base layer for comfort and performance for any rubber flooring application.

These premium rubber gym tiles are quick & easy to install. Since Performance Rubber Tiles have teeth on all sides, they are easy to reconfigure at a later time.

Performance-Lock Rubber Tiles feature a patented 3mm top surface wear layer enhancing slip-resistance in both wet and dry areas as well as a 12mm sound and shock absorbent base layer that holds up well to frequent abuse while not showing significant wear.

Proudly manufactured in the USA, these heavy-duty Performance rubber tiles have an unsurpassed 10-year warranty. These tiles are perfect for any location needing high quality, impact-resistant rubber gym flooring.
